Journal of Clinical and Translational Science

Volume 2 / Issue 4 of the Journal of Clinical and Translational Science is available online!

JCTS's mission is to provide a forum for the rapid communication of topics of interest and relevance to the large and diverse community of clinical and translational scientists with the goal of improving the efficiency with which health needs inform research and new diagnostics, therapies, and preventive measures reach the public. The Association for Clinical and Translational Science has partnered with the American Physician Scientists Association (APSA) and the Clinical Research Forum (CRF) to support the growth and development of JCTS.

News From the Hill: December 13, 2018

Lawmakers are running out of time to reach agreement with the White House over a path forward for the seven unfinished spending bills for Fiscal Year (FY) 2019. Work has largely been completed on the appropriations measures with the only remaining hurdle the resolution of a request for $5 billion of new funding for border wall construction from the administration.

Programs supported by the seven outstanding spending bills (EPA, State Department, Homeland Security, etc.) are currently operating with level-funding under a Continuing Resolution (CR) that is set to expire on December 21st.
